VOLUME 4

Elementary School

2 plus 2 equals 4. That is how long the class of 1991 has been together as Polk-Hordville High School students. The senior class members were freshman when the merger started. The last four years have been '2 Good 2 Forget'. This theme sums up the last four years as well as this year. This year started with a few new faces around the halls, but they soon became familiar to everyone. Our new high school principal, Mr. Doyle Denney, made the year an enjoyable one. Many memories were made during the year, some bad but many good.

The colors of the annual correspond with the senior class colors of Royal Blue and Silver. The theme, endsheets and layout designs were created by Stacie Ansbach.

As you look at the pictures throughout the annual you will see a variety of happenings and events that formed many memories '2 Good 2 Forget'.

The pictures on this page are from the first day of school as we all ventured back into the swing of another year. Mr. Lind found that new desks had been ordered for his room, they neglected to tell him they wouldn't arrive until the end of September.

Everyone has mixed emotions meeting for the first day.

Our new leader, Mr. Denney lays down the rules.

Steve Kennel checking with Sharon Shoup, our secretary, about scheduling.

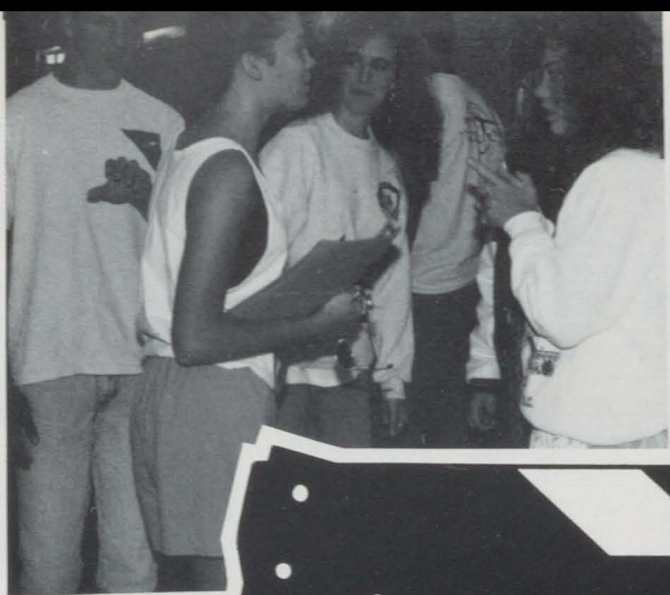

Mr. Lind felt a budget crunch at the Middle School.

Ready to hit the books again after that nutritious lunch.

Ready set action, now let's look at some more teachers who do more than just sit around. Besides classroom work, many sponsor the extracurricular activities. Some of these teachers keep busy teaching in all three buildings. You know, they do deserve more credit than we give them. Thank you teachers for all you do to educate us.

As you can see our administration does more than just sit behind a desk. Mr. Denney has done a lot this year. He was the coach of boy's basketball and he really hit it off with the kids in the high school. Carol Ortegren just likes kids so much she doesn't want them to go home. "How well do you really know your seniors?"

*I won't forget you baby
Late at night I close my eyes, and think of how things could have been
And when I think back
I remember some words you had said to me
It's better to have lost at love, than never to have loved at all
Sometimes in my head I can still see pictures of you
And I laugh to myself when I think of all those crazy things we used to do
Although the miles come between us just between you and me
I should let you fade away but that just wouldn't be me Oh baby lead
Although miles come between us just between you and me
I won't forget you baby even though I could
I won't forget you baby even though I should*

Middle School students are in a "class" by themselves, since their classes are held in the Hordville building. The students are kept busy with their regular classes, exploratory classes and sports. They have a lounge available to use if they keep their grades up.

A reading program was started second semester for students and teachers. For every book read, they got a water balloon to throw at each other on the last day of school.

Mr. Lind and his Environmental exploratory class did Adopt-A-Highway and Recycle projects this year. They picked up trash along a 3-mile stretch of Hwy. 66, from Co-op east to the county line. For the recycling project they collected aluminum, glass, and tin. Also, the eighth graders are working on a constitution for the Middle School.

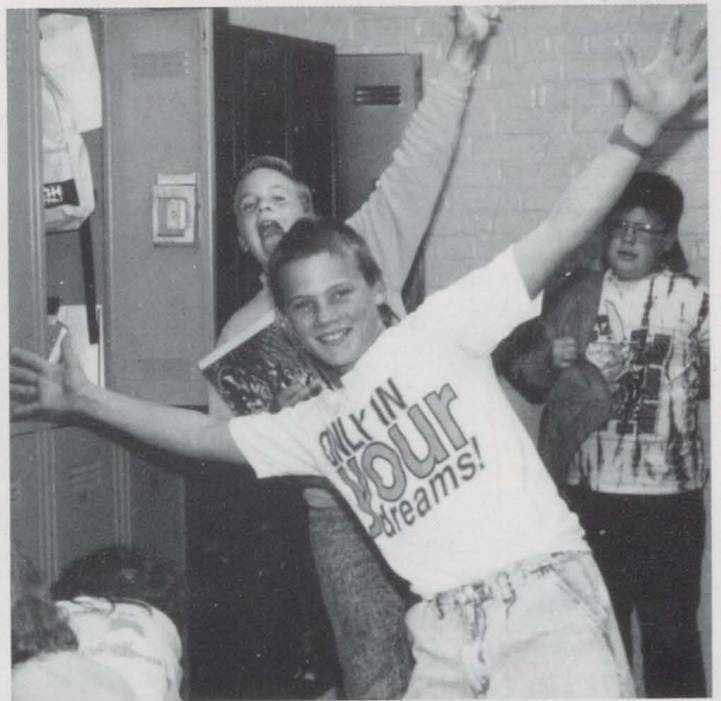

All in all, the students are kept very busy, which is a good preparation for their high school years.

Record 5-12

Volleyball season brought a new coach on the scene. Andrew Christensen took over the realm of head coach and had the job of rebuilding. Getting use to the new coaching style led to the disappointing 5-12 season. Many girls contributed to the teamwork that showed throughout the season.

The reserve team ended with a record of 8-12. They were coached by Tina Anderson. There is much talent here for future volleyball teams. The athlete's must decide that teamwork, determination and hard work is needed for improvement of a team. With these ingredients the next few seasons could prove victorious for the Polk-Hordville volleyball teams.

Bud scrambling for the ball.

Coach Denney giving the team a few pointers.

The 1990-91 Boy's Basketball team finished with an over-all 8-10 record. The final record does not reflect the narrow margin of defeat in many of the games, as five of the ten losses were 10 points or less. The Wildcats adjusted well to a new brand of basketball with Coach Denney. Bill Stevens and Ryan Sundberg were the only seniors on this year's team and provided aggressive play and scoring for the team. Ryan was slowed by an ankle injury but still managed to lead the team in steals.

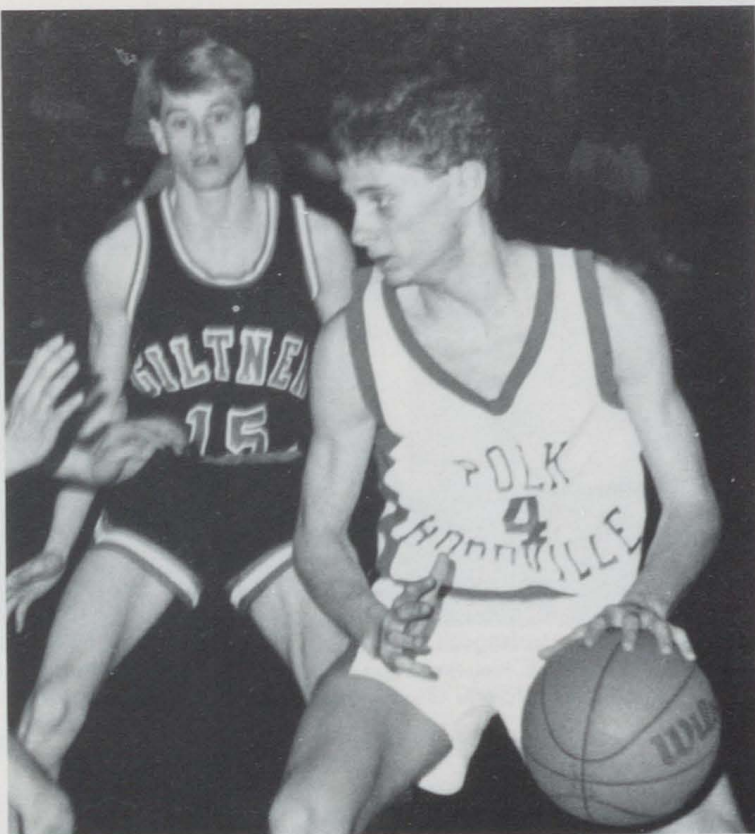

Bill tries for two.

All Conference Basketball: Bill Stevens 2nd team, Brad Anderson, Honorable Mention.

Record 11-3

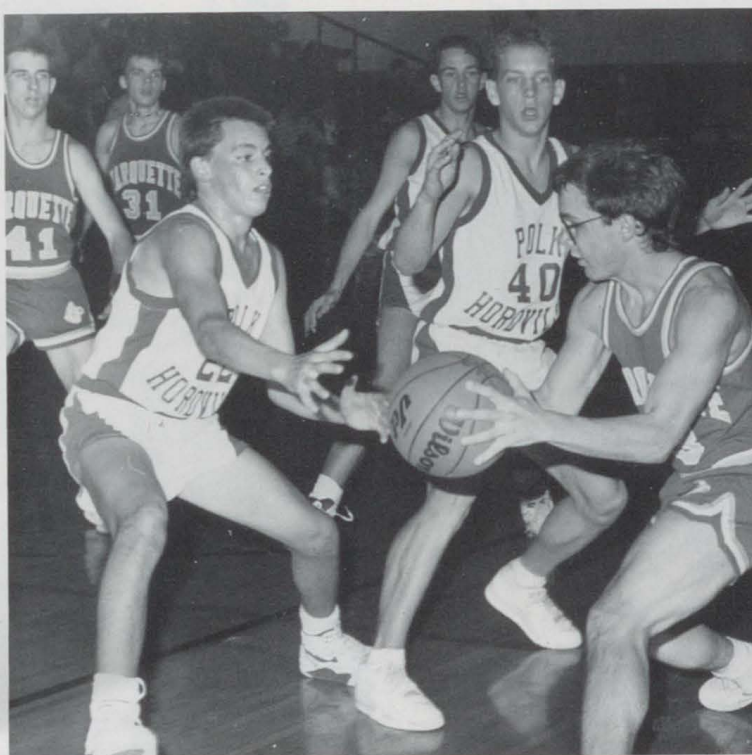

The 1990-91 Boy's Junior Varsity Basketball team finished with an 11-3 record. The team had many close and exciting games, like the Henderson game with missing a 3-point shot at the buzzer. The most disappointing loss was a 3-point loss to Osceola where the team had a 17 point lead. The team showed good sportsmanship and effort throughout the season, and Coach Meyer enjoyed working with them because of their team effort.

Why is everyone hanging out in the freshman hall?

"Angi and Jennifer are you sure what you're doing?"

"Ange did you sleep well?"

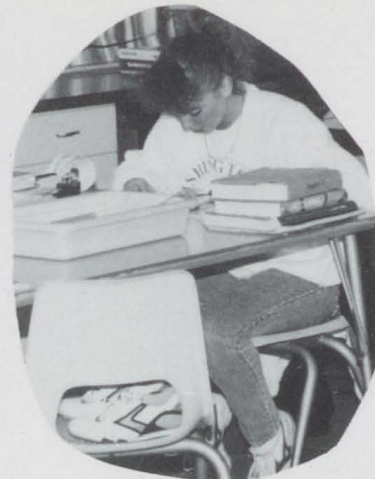

"Boyl Dani you're short!"

Stacie trying to look important.

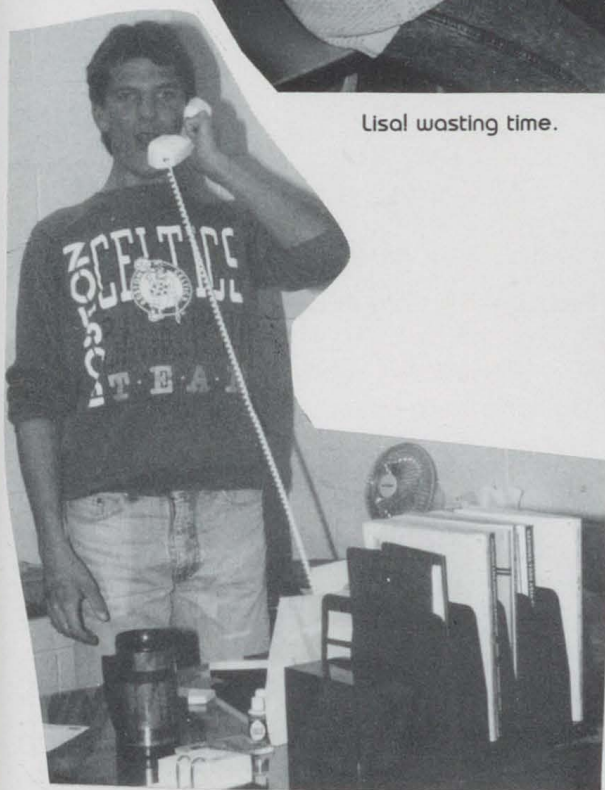

Val hard at it!

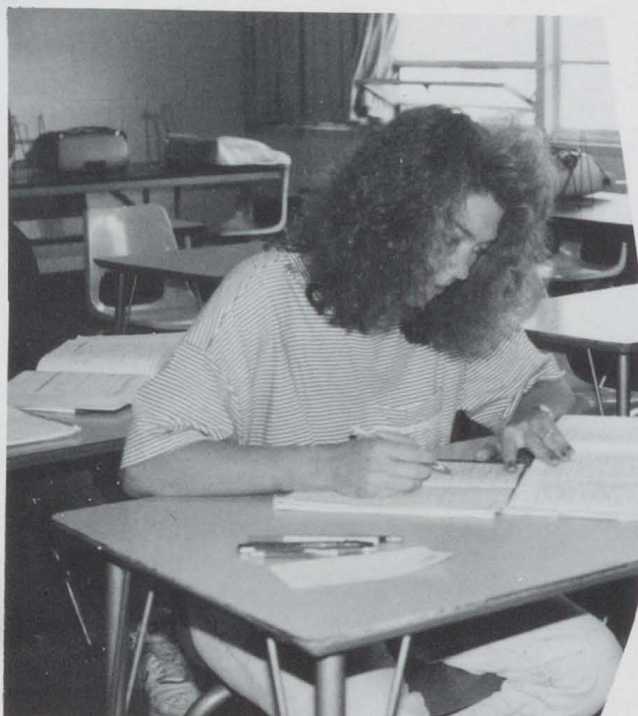

Lisal wasting time.

"Jacki I can't get my goggles on!"

"No, this isn't the Polk-Hordville High School!"

"Rene", are you working hard or hardly working?"

"I'm cool!"

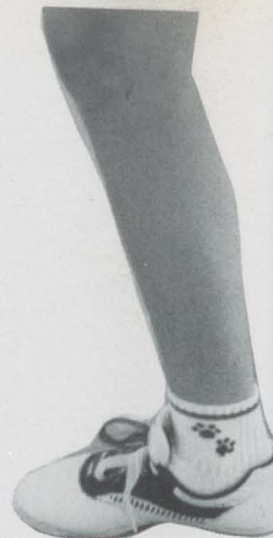

Kerwyn's thinking?

"Jeremy what's so funny?"

Who's leg?

"Dani, give them their pencils back!"

"Teri, time to wake up!"

COLOPHON

This book was created by the annual staff, Stacie Ansbach, Teri Coover, Valerie Ellison, Jennifer Hoffman, April Schueths and Linda Gilson the sponsor. It was printed by Walsworth Publishing Company, Marceline, MO. Greg Adams, from Lincoln, NE was the sales representative. This 4th edition was sold for $15.00 and $17.00 personalized. The laminated cover was created by Stacie Ansbach. Walsworth art department designed the number 2's and the '91 seal. The colors used are Black, Process Blue and 10% Black to correspond with the senior class colors of Royal Blue and Silver. The division pages and the artwork throughout the book was the idea of Stacie Ansbach. Four-color and spot-color processing was used in the first and fourth signatures. The annual was printed on 80-bound enamel paper. The endsheets are Azure Blue. The body copy was set in 10-point Bauhaus and captions were set in 8-point Bauhaus. Other copy was set in 60, 36, 30, 24, 18 and 6-point using typefaces: Bauhaus, Brush, Jefferson and Tiffany. All copy was done with the Comtran computer program. Most pictures used in the book were taken by the annual staff. The processing of pictures was done through Walgreen Drug Store in Grand Island, NE. The underclassmen class photos and group sports photos were taken by Life-Touch and Connie's Photography. Senior poses were captured by Hal Maggiore, Abbott's, T & L Photography and Regency Portraits Studios.
